Step 1: Volunteer Calendar – Select Desired Volunteer Event

- Filter by Volunteer Job Location and filter by Volunteer Job Type

Step 2: Select Desired Volunteer Shift

Warehouse Sorting and Packing

Groups and individuals work together to sort and/or pack produce, non-perishable foods, and household items, preparing them for distribution. Duties may include checking for expiration dates, opened packages and spoilage, labeling cars, and packing bags of food or household items. Other duties may include general cleaning of the area, breaking down boxes etc. This project is fun and rewarding for both adults and children.

Important Information for Group Registrations:
Group leaders who register a group must forward their email confirmation containing the Group Reservation Link to all of their prospective group members. All group members must register themselves individually using the unique registration link. Any slots that have not been filled by 72hrs prior to the shift start time will be released to the general public.

Helpful tips for volunteers:
- Masks are required
- Closed toe shoes are mandatory
- Feel free to bring your own hydration beverage with a closed twist off cap (no fountain drinks)
- Food is not allowed beyond volunteer lobby area

Important Information for Group Leaders and Group Participants:
- Group members will have up to 72 hours to complete their registration. At that time unfilled slots will be released to the public.
- If your group includes minors please forward this link to their legal parent or guardian. They will be responsible for completing registration for each child volunteering prior to the start of their shift.
- If your group size changes, please notify us as soon as possible by replying to this email. Space is limited and we plan our projects based on the number of volunteers we are expecting. We are counting on you to communicate the accurate number of group participants so we can plan accordingly and get food to people in need as quickly as possible.
- Life happens! If you are a group participant and cannot make your volunteer shift after all please unregister yourself from the shift so others have the opportunity to sign up and fill that slot.
- Please arrive at least 10 minutes before your shift starts so that you have adequate time to check in. Please bring only what you need. The Food Bank is not responsible for anything that is lost or stolen.
- Health and Food & Drink Policy
  - Volunteers who are sorting food must have no apparent illnesses. Cuts, abrasions and burns on hands and exposed are bandaged properly and hands are covered with disposable gloves. Food, drinks, chewing gum or chewing tobacco are not allowed in the sorting area.
- San Antonio Food Bank Policy on Photos, Filming and Media
  - The San Antonio Food Bank invites you to share your volunteer experience through photos and filming. Selfies are encouraged! Because we provide confidential services which include minors, individuals with disabilities and an incarcerated population, it is imperative that a request to film and photograph your volunteer experience be submitted prior to your scheduled time. Any individual or production company that wants to shoot professional video footage must obtain prior authorization from the Communications Department by calling (210) 451-4474. For safety purposes, at no time is filming permitted in the warehouse without prior consent and approval. The San Antonio Food Bank reserves the right to refuse any shoot request.

Thank you for supporting our mission to fight hunger in Southwest Texas.

IMPORTANT: Group participants have until 72 hours prior to the event start time to register under their group reservation. Any slots that haven’t been filled by 72 hours prior will be released back to the general public.
