How to Host a Successful Food & Fund Drive

Think of the great place to hold your Food & Fund Drive. Where can you raise the most money and collect the most food? You could hold one at work, your neighborhood, or at church - the possibilities are endless.

Set up a central location for all of your donations. Think of a place that is centrally located and convenient for everyone to drop off their donations. We may even be able to provide you with our signature Red Barrels. Share the link of your virtual Food & Fund Drive to drive monetary donations as well.

Get the word out. Talk about it, tweet about it, hang up flyers, and tell everyone you know. To have a successful drive, get as many people involved as possible. Tag the San Antonio Food Bank on your social media posts so we can cheer you on!
